Police name Gioannetti as 2012 Officer of the Year

Anthony Gioannetti

The Police Department named Anthony Gioannetti as Officer of the Year during a recent ceremony to honor exceptional employees and citizens of the university community.

Gioannetti, who has worked for the department since 2000, primarily serves as a patrol officer and field training officer.

"Because the FSU Police Department is an accredited law enforcement agency made up of many experienced and professional police officers, I felt honored and elated when I was selected from such a prestigious group to be Officer of the Year," Gioannetti said. "I am truly thankful to be a part of the FSU community and Police Department."

Gioannetti says his favorite part of the job is when he is able to render assistance to members of the community, whether they are victims of crime or others in need.

Other "Best of the Year" awards were given to Jesse Wilkerson, Security Officer of the Year; Shyeshia Roberson, Communications Officer of the Year; Bridgette Ray, Support Staff Member of the Year; Greg Washington, Adopt-A-Cop of the Year; and Derrick Rodgers, Field Training Officer of the Year.

The following officers received recognition for exemplary performance in

Event will put student-veterans' issues front and center

In an effort to foster deeper understanding of veterans issues and identify ways to better serve student-veterans at Florida State, the Florida State Veterans Center and the Florida Department of Veterans Affairs will host the inaugural Seminole Veterans Expo, a broad gathering of faculty, staff, students and student-veterans, as well as providers of resources for veterans.

The first-of-its-kind event at Florida State will take place Wednesday, May 30, from 8:45 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the Augustus B. Turnbull III Florida State Conference Center.

"The Seminole Veterans Expo is exciting because it will bring together so many stakeholders under one roof," said Col. Billy Francis, director of the Florida State Veterans Center. "We hope that by the end of this event we will be able to put our ideas into tangible steps that can be used to empower student-veterans at Florida State by easing their transition from military to student life, increasing their retention rates and boosting their post-enrollment employment."

The event will be divided into two components. The first is an invitation-only student-veteran dialogue, facilitated by Center for Leadership and Civic Education director Laura Osteen. It will take place from 8:45 a.m. to noon.

A veterans-resource exhibition, which partially overlaps with the dialogue session, will take place from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. Open to all local veterans and their families, as well as faculty, staff and students, it will feature representatives from university offices and local, state and federal agencies that provide various services and assistance to veterans.

Chief named to 'Stand Your Ground' review panel

David L. Perry, Florida State's chief of police, has been named to Gov. Rick Scott's Task Force on Citizen Safety and Protection.

The 19-member task force will reassess Florida's 2005 "Stand Your Ground" law in the aftermath of the Feb. 26 shooting death of Trayvon Martin in Sanford, Fla. The law says that a person can use force in self-defense when there is reasonable belief of a threat, without obligation to retreat first.

"It is appropriate to directly address the rights of all Floridians, as well as our visitors, to feel safe and secure in our state," said Lt. Gov. Jennifer Carroll, chairperson of the task force.

The task force will hold public hearings, take testimony and solicit ideas from Floridians to ensure that current policy serves Floridians in a fair and safe manner.

Police place in annual Florida DUI Challenge

Florida State's Police Department placed among the top three winners in the 2011 Florida DUI Challenge for its efforts in developing a comprehensive traffic safety program that positively affected the community by reducing traffic-related crashes, injuries and fatalities. As a result of the competition, the department will receive $12,000 in grant dollars to be applied toward traffic safety equipment.

The Florida DUI Challenge is an enforcement initiative funded by the Florida Department of Transportation and the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration. Open to all state, county and municipal law enforcement agencies within Florida, it allows them to participate in a program that challenges their efforts in six areas: policy; DUI enforcement; DUI special operations; participation in Florida and National impaired-driving campaigns; law enforcement training; and public information.

The Police Department will be recognized during the 2012 Florida Law Enforcement Challenge Ceremony in July.

the field of traffic enforcement and traffic safety initiatives: Officer Jeremy Izquierdo, DUI enforcement; Officer Mike Rodes, occupant restraint enforcement; and Officer Ben Buckley, speed enforcement.

Letters of Commendation for exemplary work on various cases over the previous six months were given to Officer Dina Harris, Officer Trey Cooper, Officer Chris Fender, Officer Garrett Williams, Cpl. Hank Jacob and Sgt. Chris Brun.

What's more, several members of the department were recognized for years-of-service milestones: Officer Brett Sheffield, 10 Years; Officer Ben Buckley, 10 Years; Officer Lance McLeod, 10 Years; Officer Jason Harris, 10 Years; Security Officer Jesse Wilkerson, 10 Years; Lt. Terri Brown, 20 Years; and Sgt. Mark Edenfield, 30 Years.

NewsMakers

"Willpower and discipline in one area, like studying hard, will turn into willpower and discipline in other areas, like exercise, saving money and better posture. There's a reason for this. Your capacity for self-control in general increases."

Roy Baumeister, Florida State's Francis Eppes Professor of Psychology, as quoted in the April 2012 issue of Allure magazine. The article "Disciplinary Action" discusses the thrills of pushing the limits of self-control.

Top graduate students honored at annual celebration

Florida State University honored the achievements of its graduate students during the annual Celebration of Graduate Student Excellence on April 11. Students were recognized for excellence in teaching, research, creativity and leadership. The Graduate School, the Office of Research and the Congress of Graduate Students cosponsored the event.

In discussing her own graduate school experiences, Provost and Executive Vice President for Academic Affairs Garnett S. Stokes encouraged the students that their hard work and commitment is worth the effort. She praised them for their dedication and contributions to the university community.

Joining Stokes during the ceremony were Nancy Marcus, dean of The Graduate School; Judy Devine, senior associate dean of The Graduate School; Connie Eudy, director of the Program for Instructional Excellence; and Rebecca Ormiston, a graduate student in the School of Theatre.

"It was an honor to meet these exceptional graduate students," Marcus said. "On behalf of The Graduate School, we offer congratulations to all of them for their outstanding achievements."

Steve Zimmer, business development manager for Sony Direct, also attended the ceremony because of the Sony Corporation's partnership with the FSU Computer Store and The Graduate School. Through the partnership, randomly selected graduate students and junior faculty members received technology packages featuring a Sony Vaio Notebook, a Sony MP3 player and a Sony Webbie HD camera.

Research and Creativity Awards were given to recognize outstanding research and creativity in the academic community at FSU. The recipients were: Joshua Cochran (Criminology); Elise Gornish (Biological Science); Sebastian Kurtsek (Statistics); Zarko Manojlovic

(Biomedical Sciences); and Adam Smith (Neuroscience).

Peter Kunze, (English) received the distinguished Graduate Student Leadership Award.

Outstanding Teaching Assistant Awards, nominated by faculty, staff and students, were given to recognize excellence in teaching and substantial contributions to student learning at FSU. The recipients were: Deirdre Carter (Art History); Eric Jones (Biological Science); Tony Purvis (Interior Design); Jennifer Sexton (Management); Ryan Shields (Criminology); and Spencer Wise (English).

The Fellows Society held an interdisciplinary poster session during the event, which showcased the current research of the following fellows: Jean Kleimeyer (Clinical Psychology); Josh Cossuth (Earth, Ocean, and Atmospheric Science); Andrea Arce-Trigatti (International Affairs); Jennifer Misuraca (Physics); Sungkyu Jang (Public Administration and Policy); and Jane McPherson (Social Work).

Florida State graduate students continue to accrue honors, grants and fellowships. A few such accomplishments were recognized during the ceremony: Josh Grinath (Biological Science), Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) Science to Achieve Results (STAR) Fellowship; Jennifer Misuraca (Physics), Philanthropic Educational Organization (P.E.O.) Scholar Award; Amber Sargent (Interior Design), Network of Executive Women in Hospitality (NEWH) Platinum Scholarship; April Smith (Psychology), Philanthropic Educational Organization (P.E.O.) Scholar Award; Debra Trusty (Classics), NSF Dissertation Research Improvement Grant; and Chelsie Wagner (Biological Science), NSF Graduate Research Fellowship.

To register for classes, log in to omni.fsu.edu and click in sequence: "Human Resources 9.0," "Self Service," "Learning and Development," "Request Training Enrollment" and "Search by Date, Course Code or Course Name." From there, click on "View Available Sessions" and choose a session number. Follow the prompts to submit a request. To view a course description, click on the icon.

Information: (850) 644-8724.

>> NEW-EMPLOYEE ORIENTATION AVAILABLE ONLINE: Each participant must verify his or her completion of online NEO by submitting the electronic "Certification of Completion and Evaluation of Orientation" form located on the NEO page. The link to online new employee presentations, materials and the certification form can be found at www.hr.fsu.edu/ContentNEOnline/index.html.

Assistance: (850) 644-8724.

>>NEW-EMPLOYEE ORIENTATION WEBSITE REDESIGN: The Office of Training and Organizational Development is redesigning the New Employee Orientation Web page so that it will serve as a showcase of current USPS, A&P and faculty employees from a broad range of university departments.

New Employee Orientation is the first step that new employees take when transitioning to Florida State. More importantly, it is where first impressions are formed.

Employees interested in being featured on the NEO website should submit:

- 1) A recent photograph (head shot);
- 2) A one- or two-sentence statement of why they think Florida State is a great place to work; and
- 3) Department name and length of employment at Florida State.

Example:

"I love working at Florida State because of the diverse community. FSU provides a unique opportunity to experience other cultures and be more open minded."

Susie Seminole

Office of Human Resources

3 years at FSU

Email the information to Megan Darris at mld08j@admin.fsu.edu. There is no deadline because employee cameos will be sought throughout the year.

>>ADULT BASIC EDUCATION: The objective of the program is to improve an individual's fundamental educational skills in reading, writing and/or math. The program also is a preparation for the General Educational Development (GED) test. ABE classes are taught by Florida-certified teachers. Participants choose and attend one regularly scheduled, three-hour class session every Tuesday or Thursday from 9 a.m. to noon at the Training Center, 493 Stadium Drive.

Registration (for new and returning participants): (850) 644-8724.

Please note Policy OP-C-7-F1: If an employee attends a training program (to include programs provided by Human Resources) during work hours and wishes to have the training considered as time worked, the employee must secure the permission of his or her immediate supervisor before attending. Otherwise, employees may attend training during their off hours, or they may use leave time if so desired.
